

John Colet School
Fairtrade Policy

As a school with Specialist Humanities College status, The John Colet School recognises the importance of Fairtrade for third world producers and we are committed to promoting this within school and in the wider community. We will do this by:

- Purchasing Fairtrade catering supplies wherever possible – e.g. tea/coffee etc. in the staff room/ingredients for cookery lessons etc.
- Researching possible Fairtrade alternatives when new equipment needs to be ordered (e.g. sports balls)
- Promoting Fairtrade at school events
- Including the subject of Fairtrade as part of lessons across a range of subject areas/year groups
- Holding or participating in Fairtrade event(s) during Fairtrade Fortnight
- Exploring the possibility of Fairtrade uniforms
- Having a Fairtrade page on our school website
- Working with other groups to promote Fairtrade in the community

I can confirm that the School Governors and I have read and support the above policy.

Signed.....C. McLintock (Headteacher)
