

Pupil premium evaluation statement John Colet School 2019/20

School overview

Metric	Data
School name	John Colet School
Pupils in school	1022
Proportion of disadvantaged pupils	8.75%
Proportion of service pupils	7.69%
Total Pupil premium allocation this academic year	£108,125
Academic year or years covered by statement	2019/20
Publish date	October 2020
Review date	October 2021
Statement authorised by	Patrick Harty
Pupil premium lead	Louise Abslom/Victoria Remmington
Governor lead	Wayne Howell

Disadvantaged pupil performance overview for last academic year

Progress 8	No external data
Ebacc entry	No external data
Attainment 8	No external data
% Grade 5+ in English and maths	No external data

Review: 2019/20 aims and outcomes

Total Pupil Premium Allocation Spend: £108,125

Allocation spend (Disadvantage): £80,410

Aim	Cost	Outcome	Continue/Amend?
Priority 1: Improve academic outcomes for FSME6 students
Academic 1:1/small group intervention (Inc HLTAs, Learning Support Assistants) to improve P8	(£29,210)	Not possible to fully evaluate due to Coronavirus	Yes - extend using catch up funding from government
SLE consultancy with identified subject areas	(£2,000)	Not possible to fully evaluate due to Coronavirus	Some intervention with curriculum change impact. Continue to use to drive results in Open Element subjects
Minibus funding	(£200)	Not possible to fully evaluate due to Coronavirus	No - lack of demand from students

Priority 2: Improve attendance of FSME6 students
Non-academic interventions (including attendance, Family Liaison Officer internal and external mentors, SSos and counsellors)	£32,000	Up to March: Achieved - Overall absence for FSME6 students has declined including persistent absence. Difference of -3.56 of Pupil Premium to non And -6.2 for persistent absence (1.8 improvement) for current FSM students	Yes
Priority 3: Ensure pupils are active participants in the John Colet Community
Additional curriculum activities (including The Scholars Programme)	£7,000	80% original Y10 cohort finished Scholars Programme. 100% pass rate. 90% achieved a 1st. Year 8 (now Year 9) postponed until Autumn 2020	Yes, 20/21 cohorts postponed to summer term to facilitate trip
Trips, equipment and uniform	£10,000	By March 2020, there were 48 trip places booked or used by pupil premium students.	Yes - budget diverted due to lack of trips for academic year 2020/21

Review: 2018/19 aims and outcomes: Service Pupil Premium

Allocation spend: £26,775

Aim	Cost	Outcome	Continue/ Amend?
Priority 1: Ensure that all Service Children receive pastoral support in line with their needs
Non-academic interventions (including attendance, counsellors and Family Liaison Officer) to ensure no difference in attendance between service children and non.	£15,404	Up to March: attendance in line with or above school average.	Yes - ensure that FLO links with service families and works with feeder schools to support their needs
Additional curriculum activities (including The Scholars Programme and Qualifying Service linked Trips)	£2,000	No service children on Year 10 cohort for Scholars 3 students due to take part in the postponed programme.	Yes - continue to target service students to help raise aspirations.