Powerful LEARNERS at JCS

This means students:

Resourceful

Ask questions and know where to find answers

Try out regular revision strategies even when there are no tests/exams

Question others with quizzes/flashcards

Uses exercise books, Chromebooks or textbooks to support learning

Make the most of form time literacy activities

Use dictionaries and thesauruses to support and develop vocabulary

Resilient

Don't give up when things are tough

Act on advice given

Look for alternative ways

Try a range of strategies when things are difficult

Read around a topic/subject that is tricky or new

Practise using new vocabulary at home and in school

Readers

Make reading an expectation of a daily routine

Speak to older people about what they were reading at the same age

Question what is being read - do you agree?

Speak to the librarian to access texts or books at the right level of challenge

Investigate words not understood

Summarise learning

Teaching and Learning at JCS

Planning for behaviour	Teaching and Learning	Assessment and Feedback
Teachers and students create a welcoming environment where everyone has the chance to succeed	All adults in the room support students to succeed	Students should expect to be questioned on their learning
Teachers will have high expectations of attitudes to learning and outcomes	A DO IT NOW activity to recap, retrieve or activate prior learning	Students should use feedback to improve their learning outcomes
Allocated seating to support the learning of all students	Modelled work or skills ( I do, we do, you do )	Teachers should use feedback to plan for future lessons
Teachers will reward positive choices from students, but use graduated C points where necessary	An expectation of some silent working in every lesson
	Literacy and reading support will be considered in every lesson

What should teachers expect at JCS?

- Courteous and respectful behaviour
- Active participation in class activities
- Working hard to the best of ability
- Good attendance in lessons

Learning at John Colet School aims to be engaging, challenging and purposeful. Students are expected to be active learners and teachers are expected to provide lessons which help equip young people with the knowledge, skills and understanding to enable success. Formative feedback from the teacher enables students to be reflective as they progress each lesson. Every lesson should contribute to the young people in our care becoming well-developed individuals of good character who are confident and capable to make a contribution to society.
