

Teacher of Humanities, full-time or part-time

M1 to UPS3

Accelerated pay progression for outstanding teachers

Required from ideally January 2024 or Easter

Our strong collaborative ethos is reinforced every Tuesday afternoon when we close our school to students so that the last timetabled lesson is dedicated to departmental lesson planning.

Every lesson shapes a life. At John Colet our teachers plan lessons in school, so the shape of their home life is as energetic as their classes.

Being able to plan lessons in advance, with time to review classes delivered and work submitted by students, is just one of the reasons teachers love working at John Colet School.

Other reasons teachers work at John Colet School (Ofsted rated – good) include;

- Good work/life balance
- Preferential places for children of staff after a qualifying period
- Being appreciated and recognised for a job well done
- The support from colleagues and SLT
- Respect and politeness from students
- Range of resources and support available to help achieve personal and professional goals
- Coaching and CPD workshops
- Lovely setting/environment (with plentiful, free staff parking)
- Revision sessions are well received and attended by students
- Knowing every student well and being able to offer individual support
- Staff and pupils feel safe
- Equality and diversity in the workplace is practiced
- Accelerated pay progression for outstanding teachers
- A wide variety of trips and extra-curricular activities (please see our website)

You will be able to teach throughout the age and ability range but most importantly, you will be committed to excellence for your students, your colleagues, yourself and John Colet School.

- The Humanities Department includes teachers of history, geography, RE, politics and sociology.

- Humanities subjects are very popular with students over our three year GCSE programme and we offer history, geography, politics and sociology at A Level.
- The department organises many trips, visits and events including overseas trips to Iceland and Germany.
- Full-time teachers have their own, well equipped classroom including access to Chromebooks, though students in Years 7-10 and 12-13 bring their own devices.
- We are looking for someone to work with the team to maintain and improve the high standards achieved by our students.

If you think life at John Colet School would suit you, then we are looking for an innovative teacher to plan and deliver exciting lessons for their classes to join us from January 2024.

The John Colet School takes the safeguarding and wellbeing of students seriously and this post is subject to an enhanced Disclosure & Barring Service check and Qualifications check.

Applications from agencies and personal CV's will not be accepted.

Closing date: 9am Tuesday 2 January 2024

Interviews: Strong candidates will be offered early interviews.
