Accelerated pay progression for outstanding teachers

- We are looking for an enthusiastic and motivated teacher to lead the provision of Special Educational Needs at John Colet School. We require an excellent practitioner who is also keen to get involved in the wider life of the school and can really inspire the students.
- It would be an advantage if the applicant could teach in the English Department.
- The school has a committed, friendly and supportive team of staff and offers excellent NQT support and good CPD opportunities. The school is located in a beautiful part of Buckinghamshire and the children are really proud of their school.
- John Colet is a successful and over-subscribed 11 – 18 school, both parental and student satisfaction is high.

Please see the school website for an application form and further information.
